

POLLUTION PREVENTION AND CONTROL (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2012

In accordance with Paragraph 4 of Schedule 7 to the Pollution Prevention and Control (Scotland) Regulations, notice is hereby given that Aberdeen & Northern Eggs Limited has applied to the Scottish Environment Protection Agency (SEPA) to vary (change) their permit under Regulation 46 of the regulations. This is in respect of activities being carried out namely rearing poultry with more than 40,000 places for birds in an installation at West Cockmuir, Strichen, Fraserburgh, AB43 5AR.

The application contains a description of any foreseeable significant effects of emissions from the installation on the environment and on human health.

Please contact registry@sepa.org.uk if you wish to see a copy, please quote reference number PPC/A/1016719. Please quote reference number PPC/A/1016719.

The application contains a description of the proposed change and any impact it may have on:

- the extent of the site
- the activities carried out;
- the installation and any directly associated activities;
- the condition of the land (a site report);
- the reasons for proposing equivalent emission limit values;
- the raw and auxiliary materials, substances and energy to be used, or generated;
- the nature, quantities and source of foreseeable emissions from the installation
- the techniques for preventing, reducing or rendering harmless emissions;
- how the best available techniques are applied to the operation of the installation;
- the proposed measures to be taken to monitor emissions;
- the measures to be taken to minimise waste and recover wastes generated;
- measures taken against pollution and to ensure that no significant pollution is caused;
- an environmental impact assessment;
- an outline of the main alternatives if any have been studied;
- a non-technical summary of the information referred to above;
- other information which the applicant may wish SEPA to take into account.

Written representation concerning this application may be made to SEPA via the following email address: registry@sepa.org.uk and if received within 28 days of this Notice, will be taken into consideration in determining the variation application. Any such representations made by any person will be entered in a Public Register, unless that person requests in writing that they should not be entered. Where such a request is made, a statement will be included in the register indicating that representations have been made that have been the subject of such a request.
